

MFT, PG, & SNY are:

Sutro

is a joint artist project between San Francisco's Afterthought, DJSAY, and Professa Gabel. The three have been making waves in the city as solo artists and since joining forces in late 2020, they've hit 20k streams on 2021's "Sutro EP", played shows from LA to NYC, packed out a 415 Day celebration at El Rio, and even begun hosting weekly trivia nights in San Francisco. Now they're gearing up to release their debut album featuring Mistah FAB, Nef The Pharaoh, & more. With a tour, music videos, and even a custom Sutro wine on the way, look for them to make a major splash in 2024 and beyond.
